CTEL awarded Telecom Asia's 2010 "Best Fixed-Line & Broadband Carrier"

(Hong Kong, 21 April 2010) Last night, at a grand gala dinner at the Capella Resort, Singapore,) Hong Kong Broadband Network Ltd ("HKBN"), a wholly owned subsidiary of City Telecom (HK) Limited (SEHK: 1137, NASDAQ: CTEL), accepted Telecom Asia's 2010 "Best Fixed-Line Broadband Carrier" Award.

In its 13th year, the Telecom Asia Awards have been presented since 1998 and are the largest and longest-running telecoms industry honors in Asia. The awards recognize innovative and outstanding performance by Asian service providers and industry executives. Final selection of winners was made by an independent panel of industry experts, who cast votes on the basis of innovation, financial performance, technology, market leadership and corporate governance. Previous winners of the award in this category include NTT Communications (Japan), PCCW (Hong Kong), StarHub Ltd. (Singapore) and Telstra Corp. (Australia). Additional information on the awards will be available at <http://awards.telecomasia.net/10>.

On behalf of the people of Hong Kong, the Group is honored to accept this prestigious Telecom Asia Award. "Over 70% of Hong Kong's population has access to our fibre-based symmetric 100Mbps to 1Gbps broadband service, at amongst the best value in terms of cost/Mbps in the world. We are turning our city into a Fibre Oasis attracting global businesses to Hong Kong," said Ms To Wai Bing, our Managing Director, Business Development, "An integral part of our corporate vision statement is 'To experience the joy of advancing and applying telecommunications technology for the benefit of the public'. Winning this award is an affirmation that we are on track."
