CTI Accepts 3 Awards at The Hong Kong HRM Awards 2010

(15 November 2010) City Telecom (H.K.) Limited (HKEX: 1137, NASDAQ: CTEL) is proud to be recognized with 3 awards at The Hong Kong HRM Awards 2010 presented, at a Gala Dinner held at the JW Marriot Hotel:

- The Champion of HR (William Yeung, CEO)
- Team Building Asia Award for Best HR Team
- Korn/Ferry International Award for Best Leadership Development

Chief Executive Officer, William Yeung said, "We are glad to receive 3 awards as well as to be selected as the finalist for HR Magazine Award for Best HR Manager and Best HR Young Gun. This reflects that our investments in Talent Development are being widely recognized by our fellow HR experts and professionals." He added, "We consider the quality of our 3,200 Talents to be essential to accelerating our climb towards our 10-year Big Hairy Audacious Goal (BHAG) of becoming the largest Internet Protocol service provider in Hong Kong by 2016."

Now in its fourth year, The Hong Kong HRM Awards has firmly established itself as Hong Kong's pre-eminent HR awards and is the leading event for recognizing and celebrating exceptional Human Resource professionals and organizational practices. As in previous years, the award categories reflect the ever changing business environment and the related challenges facing HR professionals. Judging is by a high caliber panel of seasoned HR experts, professional consultants and industry professors. Winners of this year's awards include global and local corporations such as Standard Chartered Bank (HK) Limited, Citibank N.A. Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Jockey Club, CLP Power HK Ltd, MTR Corporation, Civil Service Bureau, NWS Holding Limited, Li & Fung (Trading) Limited, American Express International Inc, and VF Asia Limited, etc.
